

Application and Visa Process

Semester Program with Student Visa Support

The whole process:

A. Program Application:

1. complete the program application form and send back
2. passport ID page
3. pass Chinese visa pages if there were
4. application fee: 800RMB (to pay only when we received the first 3 documents and accept the application)

B: School Admission:

Then the school will process the admission and prepare the documents, including:

1. Admission letter
2. Invitation letter
3. Program Calendar

with official stamp and signature

C. Visa application appointment while waiting for the documents

At the same time, you can book the appointment with the local visa office/embassy (or Hong Kong).

When documents are ready, we will send you photo of the documents for your further check to make sure everything is correct.

D. Payment and Visa application after receiving the documents

Payment: First you pay the tuition fee, and then we will send you the official admission documents. (We will send original digital scans for your review and confirmation).

After receiving the documents, you can go to the visa office to submit the application and wait for your visa.

After they accept your application, you can book your flight.

We will provide all necessary supports during the visa application process.

If the visa application was failed, the tuition fee will be totally refunded.

E. Accommodation Preview:

We have partners who offer different accommodation options including single-room in a shared apartment or a single apartment, costing from 3500RMB/month.

When visa is ready, I'll share with you the accommodation options so you can check and understand the conditions and cost.

F. Departure and arrival in Shanghai to start

The last step, come to Shanghai and join the program to start your

Chinese learning journey and explore the culture and opportunities in China.
